

Spiti Valley Circuit Trip:
Chandigarh - Kinnaur – Spiti -
Manali Itinerary

| Day | Place | Details. |
|-----|--|--|
| 1 | Chandigarh - Narkanda (5 – 6 hours drive) | On arrival at Chandigarh, we drive to Narkanda(7,238 feet). After reaching there, we take a detour to Hatu peak and temple. Overnight stay at HPTDC hotel or a hotel offering matching tariff. |
| 2 | Chitkul - Kalpa (4 –5 hours drive) | After breakfast, drive to Kalpa (@ 9800 feet). Visit Chini village monastery and temple, Roghi cliff point and Roghi village. Overnight stay at the Kinner Kailash HPTDC hotel, Kalpa. |
| 3 | Kalpa – Nako - Tabo (7 – 8 hours drive) | After witnessing the stunning sunrise over the Kinnaur Kailash peak, we head towards Nako. Nako is located at an altitude of 10496 feet in the barren Hangrang valley of Kinnaur. Visit Nako lake and monastery and drive to the Ajanta of the Himalayas , Tabo. Overnight at a hotel/homestay. |
| 4 | Tabo- Pin Valley (3-4 hrs drive) | After breakfast at Tabo we drive to Mudh village, the last village in Pin valley. Pin valley is the least explored valley in the Spiti region of Himachal Pradesh. Explore Mikkim and Sangnam village. Visit the Kungri Monastery, Pin river bank, and then head to the beautiful hamlet of Mudh – the last motorable village of the Pin Valley. Overnight stay at Mud (12000 feet). |
| 5 | Mud-Dhankar monastery (3 – 4 hours) | Drive to the charming and towering village of Dhankar. Dhankar, the former capital of the Spiti Valley, offers vantage and panoramic views of Spiti Valley. Visit one of the oldest gompas in the Spiti Valley. Overnight at a hotel in Kaza (12100 feet). |

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| 6 | Kaza - Hikkim - Lalung - Langza – Key - Kibber (5 – 6 hours drive) | First drive to the highest village in Asia, Komik, which literally translates to ‘eye of a snow cock’, is situated at a height of 4513 meters. Later, we drive to Hikkim where we visit the world’s highest post office in the world. After sending out a postcards to our loved ones, we drive to Langza. Once we are here, we would walk around the village and visit the ancient Lang (Temple) which is estimated to be around 1000 years old. Visit the Key monastery. Overnight stay at Cherring’s homestay , Kibber. |
| 7 | Kibber - Chandratal Lake (14k feet / 7 – 8 hours) | Drive to one of the most instagrammed places in Spiti Valley – the Chandratal Lake. Before that, we pass through the high altitude pass of Kunzum La. Stop by at the stupa and pay tribute to the local goddess , “Kuzum Mata” as she's known. 15,000 feet above sea-level, the Kunzum Pass connects Kullu and Keylong to the Spiti Valley. Live your dream of camping by the magnificent glacial Himalayan lake as you spend your evening gazing at the Milky way and millions of stars on a clear night. Overnight in the camps. |
| 8 | Chandratal - Manali via Atal Tunnel (3-4 hours drive) | On the ninth day of this Spiti Valley tour, drive from Chandratal Lake towards Manali. Drive through the engineering marvel, Atal tunnel and return to Manali to end our breath-taking Spiti Valley sojourn. In the evening we are free to explore Manali town on your own. Overnight at a hotel in Manali. |
| 9 | Manali to Chandigarh | During breakfast enjoy some brilliant views of the Himalayas from your hotel in Manali. Proceed to Chandigarh after breakfast. Drop at Chandigarh airport in the afternoon. Tour ends here. |
| | | |